

Brief CV for assistant Professor Dr. Wajieh Mahmoud Shahla
Syrian Arab Republic, Tartous, Al-shikh Bader, Arraqmah, 1950
Tel.: 963955404696

- Graduated from Aleppo University (BSc), Mechanical Engineering Faculty, 1977, ALEPPO CITY, SYRIA
- MSc. Degree in stress analysis, Aston University in Birmingham, United Kingdom, 1981
- PhD in Finite Element Method (Finite Element Analysis of the statics of and vibrations in axisymmetric shells), Aston University in Birmingham, United Kingdom, 1985
- Started lecturing at Army Academy for Engineering in Aleppo, Syria in 1986
- Lectured at the following universities: Aleppo University, Al-Ittihad Private University, Al-Andalus Private University, Syrian Private University, Al-Rasheed Private University and Al- Yarmouk Private University
- Dr. Shahla has the skills and ability to teach all subjects in English
- Dr. Shahla attended three short courses in CADD and Finite Element Analysis at Aston University in 1993 and in 1994, and at Brunel University in 1999 (United Kingdom)

Subjects that Dr. Shahla had taught at the previous mentioned Universities are:

- Engineering Drawing
- Engineering Mechanics (Statics and Dynamics)
- Properties of Materials
- Strength of Materials
- Structural Mechanics
- Computer Aided Drawing and Design
- Engineering measurements and measuring instruments
- Robots & Sensors
- Machine Element Design
- Mechanical vibrations
- Finite Element Method
- Engineering Ethics

Dr. W. M. SHAHLA